

MARRIAGE TANGLE DAZZLES THE JURY

Age of This Young Bride More
Puzzling Than Was The Age of Ann.

The jury in Judge Willer's court disagreed yesterday afternoon in the case of the State of Missouri against Harry Blaneet, charged with making a false affidavit when he made an application for license to marry Edna Bright, two or three weeks ago. Three of the jury were for the State and three for the defendant.

Several hours were consumed in the trial of the case. Prosecuting Attorney Caruthers representing the State and Albert Spradling the defendant. The point at issue was the age of the wife of the defendant. The mother of the young girl, Mrs. Bright, said the girl was only 15 years old, and swore out a warrant for her son-in-law.

Mrs. Bright claimed the girl was only 15 years of age. Dr. Howard testified that he was the physician in attendance when the girl was born and that the date of her birth was April 11, 1903.

The defendant introduced several witnesses to prove that the young bride was 18 years of age or over. Mrs. Blaneet herself testified in her husband's defense by claiming that her mother had always told her that she was five years younger than her brother Willie Bright and that he was 23 years old.

Mrs. Blaneet, mother of the defendant, said a daughter was born to Mrs. Bright when the Blaneets were living in Memphis and that this was 18 years ago. She was not positive that it was Edna as she had heard that Mrs. Bright had lost several children but that she thought it was the same child.

Mrs. William Verke, a sister-in-law of Mrs. Bright testified that when she moved here 11 years ago Edna was a big stout girl at least six or seven years of age. She was positive that the girl was Edna.

The six men composing the jury were William Lyles, Al Meystedt, Charles Mosler, J. B. Lindy, Mack Berry and C. Welpetz. As the jury disagreed it will be necessary to try the case again.

The penalty for making a false affidavit is six months in jail or a fine of $500.

SPANISH WAR VETS TO GET A PENSION

Congressman Russell Offers To Aid Widows To Get Money
Due Them.

To the Editor of the Tribune:

The House today by an overwhelming majority approved a Bill, which has already passed the Senate, and will now soon become a law, which provides a pension of $12 per month for all widows of officers and enlisted men who served for a period of not less than ninety days in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps during the War with Spain, and received an honorable discharge, provided such widow married prior to the date of the approval of the act, and is now without a net annual income in excess of $250 per annum. It also provides a $200 additional on account of each minor child until it reaches the age of 16 years.

This Bill is just like the law of 1890 in behalf of the Civil War widows, and it does not require that the death of the husband shall in any way be shown due to his service.

I suggest that you publish this letter in your paper for the benefit of the deserving widows of Spanish War veterans in your community. I will be glad to furnish all such widows a blank upon which to make application under this law if they will write me at Washington, D. C., requiring same.

Respectfully,
